IMITATE MARY BECOME LIKE JESUS LIVE FOR THE TRIUNE GOD

Call to Holiness – HOLY HOUR

Note to Facilitator: This is guided Holy Hour according to the guide in the Facilitator's Manual. Feel free to select a song for the children to listen to or sing that you believe reinforces the teaching or use the one listed below.

The Story of Our Lady of LaSalette

On September 19th, 1846 two young children Melanie and Maximin were high in the French Alps grazing their cows. They saw a beautiful woman from heaven sitting on a rock weeping and crying. The children were afraid, but she said, "Come to me, my children. Do not be afraid." She told them that she was sad and had tried to hold back the arm of her divine Son who was ready to strike the world for its wicked ways and offenses against the Commandments. She asked, "Do you say your prayers well my children?" "No," they replied, "Not much at all. She said, "Ah my children it is very important to do so at night and in the morning."

Our Blessed Mother must need our prayers a lot if she was crying for them. Mary never stops praying for us and wants us to know how important it is to pray. Father says, "You have to pray to pray." Let's ask Mary and Jesus to teach us how to pray and help us pray each part of every day during our time with Him now.

Scripture to Claim

"Be reconciled to God." 2 Corinthians, Chapter 5 :20

Our second Scripture Memory Verse provides our answer to God's call for Holiness:

"Lo, I have come to do your will, O God." Hebrews, Chapter 10: 5-7
